VERY IMPORTANT~PLEASE READ!!!

- ◆ The WINTER Term will be every Tuesday beginning January 16, and every Wednesday beginning January 17 for eight consecutive weeks.
- ◆ Classes will be held at Ascension Catholic Church, 2950 N Harbor City Blvd. (US1), Melbourne, 32935. Ascension is located just south of US 1 and Parkway. You may turn on Parkway to get to the church parking lot. Go to the Parish Hall to get name tags, coffee and classroom locations.
- ◆ Call Beverly Wheeler at 321-626-5062 for directions and other information.
- ◆ IMPORTANT NOTE: Please mail the registration form by December 31, 2017 so the director has time to process your registration. You may also register in person the first day of classes. Late registrations are always welcome!
- ◆ Classes begin at 9:00, 10:00, and 11:00 a.m., and 12:30 p.m.
- ◆ There is a registration fee that covers the entire 8-week program of $30.00, for one day, or two days for $45.00.
- ◆ Some classes require textbooks. Most of the textbooks are available on Amazon. If you want the director to order your book include your payment for the book and mail your registration early so your book will be available when classes start.
- ◆ Please register early for the best selection. Early registration is also very helpful to the program director as she prepares for a successful term.
- ◆ To register by mail, refer to this Schedule, make your course selection for each day and hour, complete the registration form, enclose your check payable to Senior Adventures In Learning of Melbourne and mail to the address at the bottom of the registration form.
- ◆ New Classes: Classes marked with an *are being offered for the first time.
- ◆ Lunch: We will have a “bring your own” brown bag lunch together at 12 noon on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. You may also purchase fruit, yogurt or snacks.
- ◆ Coffee Club: Coffee and tea is provided for $5.00 per term or you may choose to make a contribution daily.

A Special Thank You to all of you who have made donations to Senior Adventures In Learning (SAIL). We cannot operate on registration fees alone! All donations are tax deductible because we are a 501 (C)(3) non-profit charitable organization. A copy of the official registration and financial information may be obtained from the Division of Consumer Services by calling toll free within the state (1-800-435-7325).

Tuesday Classes

9:00 a.m.

204TA ZUMBA® : It's 45-50 minutes of 'ExerciZe in DisguiZe' with Zumba® with Ro! Hate to exercise? Then you'll love this dance fitness class. Ro creates easy to follow dance moves using a variety of your favorite music from all the decades, designed to work, strengthen and tone your entire body. Each class is a PARTY and you can join anytime! All ages are welcome! Ro is HIGH energy, but the moves are LOW impact keeping it easy on the knees and joints! (No Bouncing or Jumping! Unless, of course, YOU want too!)

365TA Rise Up with a Listening Heart (reprise of a much-loved 2012 class): So often in the rush and bustle of our busyness we miss the best of life-the sights and sounds and silences that can breathe new meaning into our experience of the world. Once again, Tessa Scarboro leads this class with inspiration from the Monks of New Skete, NY. A book is available but not required.

518TA Privacy, Property, and Free Speech: Law and the Constitution in the 21st Century: The proliferation of intrusive new technologies is putting many of our presumed freedoms in jeopardy. Today, it's easier to think that we have far more privacy and other personal rights than we in fact do. Only by educating ourselves about the current state of the law and the risks posed by our own inventions can we develop an informed opinion about how we can protect ourselves. Taught by Professor Jeffery Rosen of George Washington University, Great Courses. Facilitated by Fahim Ahmed, retired CEO of World Wide Telecom. Fahim managed the deployment and operation of large telecommunication systems, where the subject of privacy and security of private communications is of paramount importance.

423TA PAINT WITH ME (3 HOUR Impressionistic Painting Class): Join me, Fred Legg, in a journey to create "ADVANCED" Acrylic Paintings". (Requirements: 2 years of "Beginners/Intermediate- 423TB Classes or approval from instructor - email: felegg@gmail.com or (cell) 321-544-9658). You will need the following materials for each class: One 16 x 20" Canvas, Desk Top Portable Easel, Table cover, Six Brushes (2" Hake, No.10 Bristle brush, No.6 Bristle brush, No. 4 Flat Sable, No. 4 Script Brush, and No. 4 Round Sable), 12 Acrylic paints - =>2.5 fl oz. tubes (Gesso or Titanium White, Orange, Dark Green, Yellow, Burnt Sienna, Dark Blue, Dark Purple, Blue, Burnt Umber, Thalo - Yellow-Green, Red and Turquoise). This course will continue your growth as an acrylic artist, learning; Perspective, Landscape, Light, Adventure, Color, inspiration..and more. Paper plates, Vine Charcoal, towels, spray bottles, water containers will be provided. Fred Legg will facilitate this art appreciation series. Fred Legg is a professional artist who specializes in Still Life, Murals, and Landscapes using Acrylics and Water Mixed Oils. For those that want to look at his paintings, check out the following: www.artbylegg.wordpress.com/, <https://www.facebook.com/Fine-Art-By-Fred-Legg-286401521394132/>

10:00 a.m.

201TB YOGA: Yoga is an ancient system for calming the mind, stretching and strengthening the body and connecting to one's inner being. In each class, there is focus on breathing, learning and practicing the poses, and a short meditation at the end. Your yoga instructor will be Elana Meier. Please bring a yoga mat.

437TB Mah Jongg: This is a fascinating rummy like game played with tiles rather than cards. The game originated in China, dating back to the time of Confucius. It is played with 3 to 5 players. The National Mah Jongg League sells cards with a description of hands for the players to follow. It is a thinking game, yet so much fun. So... Lets learn to play! Taught by Judy Carr.

814TB ITALIAN: Our friend, Marcello Vici returns for this one (1) hour session of his popular class. Using the book "ITALIAN IN 10 MINUTES A DAY," he takes us on a visit to Italy – well at least in our minds. Born in Italy, but living here since 1951, he has never forgotten his native language and now shares this joy with all of us. Come learn some basic expressions, grammar, counting, etc., and join the FUN!

383TB Historical and Jewish Context of the Synoptic Gospels-Continued: For most of the history of Christianity the Gospels have been read and studied for their religious message and especially for their theological import. For the last 200 years, greater attention has been paid to re-searching these scriptures with the goal of better understanding them in their original context. We will explore several major stories and themes in the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) in light of their ancient historical and Jewish context. Class taught by Rabbi Richard Margolis.

631TB HOW TO WRITE AND PUBLISH YOUR FIRST NOVEL: Jim Nelson wrote his first novel at the age of 60. He now has 7 full length novels published. This course will show you how to utilize the 5 essential novel writing components to create your first book. You will learn how to develop characters, how to structure your scenes to maximize reader involvement, and how to turn your initial premise into 300 + page work.

524TB The History of the Supreme Court: Over the years since its first session in 1790, the United States Supreme Court has risen from a body with little power and prestige to become the most powerful and prestigious judicial court in the world. Its decisions have profoundly shaped American law but also our society. Join Bill Scott and the Teaching Company in exploring the ruling of the court. A note from Bill Scott: "I consider this one of the most important and interesting courses that I have presented."

10:00 a.m.

626TB Archeology of Ancient Rome: The course examines the origins and technologies used in the study of ancient Rome. Beginning with a discussion on methodologies the course also examines studies of specific sites such as a Roman city, farm, bath as well as the site of one of Rome's battlefields. The course will include DVDs as well as discussion. The course leader will be Dr. Ralph Schuiling.

538TB The Canterbury Tales: Chaucer's raunchy, rowdy tales about courtly love and treachery in modern highly readable English. Tempted? Come read The Canterbury Tales with Dr. Edna Crandall. I will use The Canterbury Tales/Geoffrey Chaucer/a new translation by Burton Raffel, 2008 Modern Library ed., easily found on Amazon. We will end our class with a Medieval food pot luck dinner and a movie.

211TB Posturcize: Led by Jan Harazda, RN (RN936802), LMT (MA#24421) "The gym class we should have had!" Learn simple and fun exercises that improve your posture and movement, and may even relieve neck, back, shoulder or other joint pain. Janet has been teaching Posturcize to groups and individuals for 25 years.

11:00 a.m.

574TC The Industrial Revolution: Throughout most of world history, nearly everyone has been poor, life expectancy has been short, and famine has been a frequent visitor. Today, many parts of the world are so wealthy that the specter of poverty is regarded not as normal but as a special problem that ought to be eliminated. The single greatest cause of this increase in the world's wealth has been industrialization. No other way out of this collective poverty has yet been discovered. Why was industrialization so important to the improvement in living conditions, and an increased level of wealth, health, and happiness for much of the worlds' population? Where did it start, how did it happen, and what were the results? Dr. Patrick N Allitt of Emory University will present this Great Course lecture. Discussion led by Craig Curran.

809TC Intermediate Spanish: Join Monsie Woehler, a native speaker, in this course that follows Beginning Spanish and learn more about the magical world of the Spanish Language. A new book will be used entitled: Practice Makes Perfect by Jean Yates and published by McGraw Hill. It is available on Amazon.

565TB America's Unwritten Constitution - Professor Akhil Amor, Sterling Professor of Law and Political Science at Yale Law School will teach us some of the basic tools and techniques for constitutional interpretation. We will go beyond the text of the U.S. Constitution, in this fascinating series of lectures, but still remaining faithful to it. The Constitution will be examined by looking at the issues the nation was dealing with at the time of the passage's adoption. You might say we will be putting ourselves in the framer's shoes. We will find ourselves reading between the lines and extracting from the text things that are implicit but not expressly stated. We will explore a number of unremunerated rights that exist simply because Americans embody these rights in their everyday lives. Owning pets, using contraception, testifying at one's own trial, none of these are explicitly mentioned in the text of the Constitution, yet today, they are recognized as protected fundamental rights. Professor Amor explains why. This course will be facilitated by Joel Sturman

631TC Writing Critique Group: Prerequisite - Must have attended the How to Write Your First Novel Class. Class is taught by Jim Nelson.

449TC LEARN TO KNIT: Knitting has many benefits. It can lower stress, improve focus, help arthritic fingers remain more dexterous and other health benefits. Knitting can be a highly social and enjoyable activity. Learn basic techniques of knitting. Learn to cast on stitches, knit stitch, purl stitch, increase, decrease and bind off. Learn to read a basic pattern. Continental Knitting style will be taught by Laurie Liguori.

418TC Frontier Florida and Today's Travel: A look at Florida's rich past of Exploration, Ranching, Land and the Environment of Today. The festivals, parks and landmarks that are available to see throughout the State now which preserve the early days. The emergence of Culinary Florida including Floribbean Restaurants and the current Farm to Fresh movement including the emergence and current state of agriculture here and throughout the travel world. Field trips to some of the sights will be made available. Contact Lee Rosenkranz, CTC (Certified Travel Counselor) for a syllabus at floridagreeters@vahoo.com or www.davawaytravelclub.com.

208TC QIGONG: Qigong is an ancient Chinese healing art that involves a slow and simple series of exercises. It is a form of Tai Chi. Research indicates that these exercises can help reduce stress, relieve pain, promote flexibility, eliminate sleep problems, improve balance & concentration/mental focus, and aid in relaxation. Students can sit or stand. Class is led by Bette Buck.

202TC CHAIR YOGA: This gentle movement class is perfect for those uncomfortable working on the floor. We sit in a chair or use it for support to modify the poses enhancing flexibility. Release tension and lubricate the joints as you improve balance and increase strength and stamina. Do only what fits you. All are welcome. Chairs will be provided. Elana Meier will be the instructor.

12:30 p.m.

572TD A Country Made by War: The U.S.-Mexican War, 1846-1848: A Country Made by War: The U.S.-Mexican War of 1846-1848. In this term, we take up where we left off in the last term. We will cover the marches of Wool and Doniphan into northern Mexico, and the march of Kearney into New Mexico and on to California and the events and battles in California. Historian Dick Davis will teach the course.

802TD BEGINNING FRENCH: Learn to speak French, the language of France, Quebec, Martinique, etc. with a certified teacher. Did you take French and can't speak it? Come and have fun! We are using the book E-Z FRENCH by Kendris and Kendris, published by Barron. It is available in bookstores and online. Class is taught by Jeanne Nicolucci.

806TD Don Quijote de la Mancha, written by Miguel de Cervantes – a classic novel of Spanish literature: Join this class to read some of the adventures of Don Quijote and Sancho Panza. We will be using a small reader in Spanish. This class is geared to intermediate level Spanish students. Class size is limited. The class will be conducted by Monsie Woehler, a Spanish teacher from Puerto Rico with vast experience teaching pre-school students as well as elementary through college Spanish courses. Used books are available on Amazon.

Wednesday Classes

9:00 a.m.

405WA Personal Finance Discussion Group: Dave Riches will be leading this open discussion about all things financial. The class will discuss the pros and cons of every financial decision presented to today's seniors: Stock Market Terms, From US Bonds to Lottery, From Penny Stocks to Blue Chips, Debit Cards versus Credit Cards, Savings, Annuities and Reverse Mortgages. Dave is a retired Aerospace Engineer who learned to become financially independent through wise investments.

132WA World Economy Since the 1400s: This class is a 48 week long class (6 SAIL sessions). Come join us for any or all sessions! This class revolves around the economics that man/womankind structured his/her environment in the past around methods of providing food, shelter and clothing. The course focuses on the ways that people and societies provided for themselves by looking at what they produce, how they produce it and how said production is distributed. The point of view is from the European, or Western, perspective. This is because the modern world economy has been dominated by Western ideas and ideals. Class discussion will be led by Kevin Evans.

417WA BEGINNING BRIDGE: This class is designed for those who are just beginning to learn the game along with those who feel they need a refresher in the basics. Warren Retzlaff will be working with you to develop your skills so that by the fifth week you should be able to play on your own.

423WA PAINT WITH ME (3 Hour Impressionistic Painting Class): Join me, Fred Legg, in a journey to create "Beginner/Intermediate Acrylic Paintings". Capture your joy by creating something from nothing with just the stroke of a paint brush. Bring your appetite to learn and develop a skill you will use, and enjoy for years to come! You will need the following materials: One "16 x 20" Canvas, Desk Top Portable Easel, Table cover, Six Brushes (2" Hake, No.10 Bristle brush, No.6 Bristle brush, No. 4 Flat Sable, No. 4 Script Brush, and No. 4 Round Sable), 12 Acrylic paints - =>2.5 fl oz. tubes (Gesso or Titanium White, Orange, Dark Green, Yellow, Burnt Sienna, Dark Blue, Dark Purple, Blue, Burnt Umber, Thalo - Yellow-Green, Red and Turquoise). Paper plates, Vine Charcoal, towels, spray bottles, water containers will be provided. Fred Legg will facilitate this art appreciation series. Fred Legg is a professional artist who specializes in Still Life, Murals, and Landscapes using Acrylics and Water Mixed Oils. For those that want to look at his paintings, check out the following: www.artbylegg.wordpress.com/, <https://www.facebook.com/Fine-Art-By-Fred-Legg-286401521394132/>

706WA Magic for Grandparents: You will learn simple tricks with everyday objects like playing cards: make playing cards magically change places, handkerchiefs: turn a handkerchief into a playful mouse, napkins: tear a napkin to shreds and magically restore it, salt shakers: make a salt shaker pass through a solid, dollar bills, and rubber bands. You will also learn some mentalist tricks. Come learn some magic with Joe Massimini and watch your grandchildren be in awe!

10:00 a.m.

461WB Cribbage Play (2 HOUR CLASS-Stay the whole time or play for an hour): Cribbage is one of the best two-hand games - and one of the most enduring card games. If you have always wondered about cribbage and would like to learn, sign up for the class and have fun pegging! Class is led by Phyllis Day who is a retired teacher and member of the American Cribbage Congress.

551WB America in the Gilded Age: This course examines the half century defined as the Gilded Age (1865-1920), one of the most important periods in American history. The Gilded Age as the name suggest, was in many ways a golden time. This exciting period saw spectacular advances in industrial output and technological innovation that transformed the United States from a predominantly agricultural nation to the world's most formidable industrial power by 1900. We will be using Teaching Company material with as always some time for discussion. Class will be led by Bill Scott.

10:00 a.m.

413WB ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING: Led by Carol Roberts - Do you say "Yes" when you really want to say "No"? Can you say "NO" without feeling guilty? This course will teach appropriate methods of asserting oneself without bullying others or allowing them to bully you. We will focus on effective communication skills in various situations, and values clarification exercises will be an important part of the curriculum. Carol Roberts is a licensed mental health counselor and taught this class at BCC for many years.

561WB History's Greatest Voyages of Exploration: This course spotlights the motivations for exploration throughout history: religious impulses, pursuit of commerce, desire for conquest, investigation for scientific knowledge, and genetic wanderlust. A key theme includes the fact that one journey, even if a failure, can produce a multitude of others. Join us on our travels as we go around the world with Magellan and learn about globalization in the 16th century; hear about the ruthless ambitions of the Conquistadors; search with Henry Hudson in his near-death pursuit of a Northwest passage; follow Captain Cook to his demise in the South Pacific and join in the travails of Lewis and Clarke in the Northwest. Around the world and into space – come along! Taught by Professor Vejas Liulevicius, Great Courses and facilitated by Vicki Simms.

416WB INTERMEDIATE BRIDGE (2 HOUR CLASS): This is your opportunity to improve your game simply by playing. Dr. Arthur Pappas and Dave Riches will be guiding this group and they will introduce some of the more advanced conventions such as Staymen, transfers, weak two's and steps. The 1st hour is instructional and the 2nd hour is bridge play with instruction as needed. Players from BEGINNING BRIDGE will be welcome to join in.

429WB Self-Defense Concepts, Applications and Skills (2 HOUR CLASS): A 16 hour conceptual, application and skills development course dealing with common attacks and defenses for the non-athletic person. The class will consist of a first hour lecture and practical application during the second hour. Presenter - Ron Kazoroski, 5th degree black belt in Kozuma-Kai Japanese Karate-do and former police chief.

11:00 a.m.

435WC Current Events: This course is intended to be a series of presentations on emerging issues that may impact our lives. With the new year, such things as tax reform, "free speech on campus, and perhaps health insurance may well be areas to explore. Classes are intended to include background presentation of the issues and developments that are relevant and are then open to discussions for the balance of the time.. Typically there is only one issue a week, and differences of perspective are encouraged. However, slogans, labels and such are not welcome. For example, rather than calling the IRS "socialist", one could say it is inefficient, too open to political manipulation, or too often counterproductive. Jim Thompson is the moderator.

603WC BOOK LOVERS CIRCLE: Participants will decide how many and what kind of books to read during the Winter Session. The first few weeks may be devoted to reading a book written by a local author, maybe even one of the participants. Each week we will discuss aspects of the genre and the writing. We will also discuss the overall pleasure, or not, of reading the chosen book. Rules for participation: Read the book, or at least seven chapters; keep some notes; limit your speaking so that everyone has an opportunity. Discussion will be led by Sarina Rose.

549WC THE IRISH IDENTITY, INDEPENDENCE, HISTORY. AND LITERATURE: This class will use a Great Courses Lecture Series to tell the story of the Celtic Literary Revival that began in the late 19th century. The course will wander through the full arc of Irish history, fantasy, literature and misrule; Its origins in the romantic mists and myths of the pre-Celtic and pagan Celtic era. The Roman cultural invasion originating with Palladius (Patrick got the credit). Viking raids and settlements, and 700 years of strife following the arrival of the Anglo-Normans. Eventual BREXIT and the pusillanimous politics of the Irish Republic. The "Full Monty" is 36 lectures, this term will take us from Neolithic monuments to post famine playwrights. The usual handouts replete with pithy epigrams, and diversions of Irish origin will be provided. Sean Raghallaigh will be the presenter and John Riley will facilitate the discussion.

807WC Conversational Spanish: Isabel Ochoa-Youssef will present conversation at the intermediate level, centered upon everyday situations: shopping, visiting the doctor, travel, hotels and restaurants, etc. Senora Isabel is a native speaker. A great chance to sharpen your ear and polish your accent ! Textbook is Spanish Made Simple by Eugene Jackson and Antonio Rubio.

647WC Words, words, words...Part 3: Helen Bennett will continue the class on English word origins, with help from Professor Anne Curzan of the University of Michigan. The lectures are fact-filled as well as funny, as Dr. Curzan explains how English is a hodge-podge of many languages, just as our country comprises people from all over the world. If you care about language and how people communicate, this class is a must! No need to have taken earlier classes.

809WD Beginning Spanish: Join Isabel Ochoa-Youssef, a retired Spanish teacher in the New York public school system, in this introductory course to the magical world of the Spanish Language. Elementary vocabulary and grammar will help you begin your study of this most important language. The textbook is See it and Say it in Spanish. The price is $7.50. (see registration form).

502WD American Foreign Policy: This class will continue its exploration and discussion of issues in American foreign policy. The first week we will discuss foreign policy events between last term and this one. Each week thereafter the moderator will distribute an issue paper to be discussed the following week. Dick Davis will be the moderator.

114WD The Brain In Addiction. Addiction is an epidemic that affects all of us, either directly or indirectly. The purpose of this course is to gain a better understanding of how addiction works within the brain itself. We will discuss the natural reward system within the brain and how that is changed by drugs and behaviors. The specific effects of several addictive drugs (such as alcohol, opioids, and cocaine) on receptors within the brain will be described. We will view the DVD titled "The Addictive Brain" by Professor Thad A. Polk, a part of the series of The Great Courses". Professor Polk makes this complex subject easily understood by the lay person. This class will be led by Dr. Roger Johnson, retired Professor of Anatomy and Neuroscience.
