TUESDAY Classes

9:00 a.m.

583TA THE GREAT TOURS (ENGLAND, SCOTLAND & WALES) - This course is an introduction to England, Scotland, and Wales, aimed at both visitors from abroad and armchair travelers. It describes and illustrates the places and areas most deserving of visitors' attention, giving details of their history and anecdotes about the famous personalities associated with them. It covers many historical sites including abbeys (of which there are many), churches (of which there are many), castles (of which there are...you get the point) & the homes of famous people across all three countries. Moderated by Kevin Evans

204TA ZUMBA GOLD® : It's 45-50 minutes of 'ExerciZe in DisguiZe' with Zumba Gold® with Ro! Gold is Bold, not Old!!!Hate to exercise? Then you'll love this dance fitness class. Ro creates easy to follow dance moves using a variety of your favorite music from all the decades, designed to strengthen and tone your entire body, help improve your balance, and work the brain. Each class is a PARTY and you can join anytime! All ages are welcome! Ro is HIGH energy, but the moves are LOW impact keeping it easy on the knees and joints! (No Bouncing or Jumping! Unless, of course, YOU want to!).

435TA CURRENT EVENTS: Focuses on emerging events or trends that may well have a significant impact on our society. This includes technical, cultural, medical, financial, scientific and broad political trends that we may have heard of, but generally have relatively little information on. Topics that are extremely controversial are avoided where possible, as they generally have both extensive and heated coverage that generate far more heat than light. Topics are typically introduced by about a 30-minute presentation followed by general discussion. Differences of opinion are welcome but personal attacks and labeling of ideas (e.g. socialist, fascist, racist, bleeding-heart) are not unless the opinion giver has identified themselves as such. Jim Thompson, presenter.

10:00 a.m.

504TB TURNING POINTS IN MIDDLE EASTERN HISTORY - The Middle East is one of the most fascinating and important regions on earth. This course examines the significant events that took place to change history of that region and the world from 622 to 1924. That period included the discovery of oil, the dramatic Arab Revolt led by Lawrence of Arabia during World War I, and the postwar peace settlements that created the modern Middle East out of the pieces of a shattered Ottoman Empire. We will see how events in the Middle East have, and continue to have, more long-term and wide-reaching impact. Narrated by Eamonn Gearon, M.A. Professorial Lecturer Johns Hopkins University, School of Advanced International Studies, facilitated by Fahim Ahmed

383TB RECONCILING SCIENCE AND RELIGION - We will discuss the relationship between religion and modern science, especially concerning creation, cosmology and human and animal life. We will deal with both medieval and modern attempts to harmonize religious beliefs and scientific discoveries about the universe. We will compare religious teachings about creation and cosmology with modern scientific discoveries and will attempt to identify "common ground" and areas of agreement. Some lectures will include PowerPoint presentations. Required Textbook: The Science of God, by Gerald Schroeder (Free Press, New York, 1996 – on-line used paperback for under $6.00). Rabbi Olshansky was a physics undergrad. He was ordained as a rabbi in 2011. He has taught for 11 semesters at the University of Central Florida (UCF) in Orlando and online

461TB CRIBBAGE PLAY (ONE- OR TWO-HOUR CLASS): Cribbage is one of the best two-hand games - and one of the most enduring card games. Come to learn, come to refresh, come to play. For one hour or two. Class is led by Phyllis Day who is a retired teacher and a longtime member of the American Cribbage Congress. (NOTE: MINIMUM OF FIVE PLAYERS FOR COURSE TO BE RUN)

520TB AMERICA'S FOUNDING FATHERS: Our lecturer for the series will be Allen C. Guelzo PhD in History from the University of Pennsylvania. Who were the Founders? How did their lives shape their ideas, and did those ideas get a hearing in the creation of the new American republic? We begin with George Washington and cover the lives and contributions of both the prominent, the obscure, the brilliant and, on several occasions, the downright fraudulent. We will be using Teaching company material. Bill Scott will lead the discussion.

10:00 a.m.

808TB ABSOLUTE BEGINNER SPANISH –Join Isabel Ochoa-Youssef, retired New York City teacher who speaks, reads and writes Spanish, in this introductory course to the magical world of the Spanish Language (Isabel is covering this basic class temporarily until a permanent teacher can be found for the position). Elementary vocabulary and grammar will help you advance your study of this most important language. Designed for those with LITTLE OR NO EXPERIENCE with the Spanish language.

434TB LET YOUR TASTE BUDS BE YOUR GUIDE - Restaurants have become more global in their diverse offering of cuisines but more local in terms of freshness from area farms. We will explore the trend along with a look at Restaurants that are an attraction in and of themselves due to cuisine, architecture, location, decor or outstanding views. Let your taste buds be your guide Lee Rosenkranz, CTC (Certified Travel Counselor) of Florida Greeters and the Dayaway Travel Club takes you on a Culinary adventure throughout Florida and the World.

11:00 a.m.

582TC HISTORY OF THE INDIAN SUBCONTINENT: The Indian subcontinent (India, Pakistan & Bangladesh) is home to some of the world's oldest civilizations. Today the region has 20 percent of the world's population and is a thriving center for global business, making this region one of most significant economic powerhouses in the world. Over the past 5,000 years, the subcontinent has been home to a rich tapestry of peoples and cultures. Perhaps the most important facet of this history is how diverse the region truly is. Narrated by Professor Michael H. Fisher, Ph.D. Oberlin College, and facilitated by Fahim Ahmed, an American who was born in colonial India

437TC MAH JONGG (BEGINNERS): This is a fascinating rummy like game played with tiles rather than cards. The game originated in China, dating back to the time of Confucius. The National Mah Jongg League sells cards (<https://www.nationalmahjonggleague.org/store.aspx#>) with a description of hands for the players to follow (please bring with you). It is a thinking game, yet so much fun. So..... Let's learn to play! Class size is limited to 4. Taught by Laurie Liguori. (NOTE: THIS CLASS STARTS AT 10:30)

208TC QIGONG: Qigong is an ancient Chinese healing art that involves a slow and simple series of exercises. It is a form of Tai Chi. Research indicates that these exercises can help reduce stress, relieve pain, promote flexibility, eliminate sleep problems, improve balance & concentration/mental focus and aid in relaxation. Students can sit or stand. Class is led by Bette Buck.

819TC INTRODUCTION TO SPANISH (CONTINUED) - Introductory class will continue with lesson 7 of Spanish Made Easy Text. Join Isabel Ochoa-Youssef, retired New York City teacher who speaks, reads and writes Spanish, in this continued introductory course to the magical world of the Spanish Language. Elementary vocabulary and grammar will help you advance your study of this most important language. Designed for those students who have taken the initial Introduction to Spanish course or who have some fundamental knowledge of Spanish Textbook is Spanish Made Simple by Eugene Jackson and Antonio Rubio. Revised by Judith Neimethy. Class is limited to 25 students.

818TC ADVANCED SPANISH: Puntos de Partida (Points of Departure). In this course students will participate in discussions of topics of interest, everyday life conversations students may encounter in the daily life that they may encounter in a Spanish-country. The class will help improve the students' listening and speaking skills and help them communicate better with Spanish-speaking people. This class will be conducted entirely in Spanish and will be limited to TEN (10) students. The class will be conducted by Monsie Woehler who has a Master's degree in Spanish; has many years of teaching experience and has taught at all levels of Spanish.

450TC EMBROIDERY FOR BEGINNERS: Hand Embroidery is a relaxing and intriguing hobby that can bring much satisfaction as well as the companionship of group learning. Members of the Indian River Chapter of the Embroiderers' Guild of America (IRC/EGA), a worldwide organization, will teach seven basic stitches on a small sample bookmark. Complete kits will be provided, and magnification will be available. Just bring your enthusiasm.

12:30 P.M.

437TD MAH JONGG (BEGINNERS): This is a fascinating rummy like game played with tiles rather than cards. See description at 11:00 a.m. Class size is limited to 4. Taught by Laurie Liguori (NOTE: THIS CLASS BEGINS AT 12:00 NOON)

218TD OPTIMIZING BRAIN FITNESS, PART 1 - The good news is that no matter how old you are, you can take an active part in increasing the power of your brain. In this practical course you will learn what steps you can take in your own life to enhance your brain function. This course will be presented by Professor Richard Restak using The Great Courses and will be facilitated by Dr. Roger Johnson.

502TD PROBLEMS IN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY: This class will examine and discuss problems in American foreign policy. At the close of discussion each week, the moderator will distribute an issue paper to be discussed in the next class. In the first week of this class we will discuss foreign policy events that have taken place since the last term. Discussions will be moderated by Dick Davis

807TD CONVERSATIONAL SPANISH LANGUAGE: Isabel Ochoa-Youssef will present conversation at the intermediate level, centered upon everyday situations; shopping, visiting the doctor, travel, hotels and restaurants, etc. Senora Isabel is a native speaker. A great chance to sharpen your ear and polish your accent! Textbook is Spanish Made Simple by Eugene Jackson and Antonio Rubio. . Revised by Judith Neimethy.

WEDNESDAY Classes

9:00 a.m.

417WA BEGINNING BRIDGE: This class is designed for those who are just beginning to learn the game along with those who feel they need a refresher in the basics. Warren Retzlaff will be working with you to develop your skills so that by the fifth week you should be able to play on your own.

580WA HOW WINSTON CHURCHILL CHANGED THE WORLD: The continuation of this course follows Winston Churchill's activities during the Second World War. As Prime Minister while Britain reels under the Nazi onslaught, Churchill leads the fight while Britain stood alone. Fighting Germany, Italy, and finally Japan, he helped forge a partnership with America that not only made victory possible but would result in a change in the power dynamics of the modern world for the rest of the century. This is a Great Course program taught by Professor Michael Sheldon and facilitated by Craig Curran

211WA POSTURCIZE: *Led by Jan Harazda, RN (RN936802), LMT (MA#24421)"The gym class we should have had!" Gentle conditioning exercises for warming and lubricating the joints, increasing resilience, as well as preventing and recovering from pain. 579WB FORENSIC HISTORY: CRIMES, FRAUDS & SCANDALS: This course is a 24-week journey through time and place from the perspective of forensic science and criminal history. It examines technological advancements and political and legal issues and demonstrates how science and society relate to each other, especially with regards to criminal investigations. From "Jack the Ripper" & "The Black Dahlia" through time to "Bad Boy of US Politics", "Forensics of Genocide" and many others terminating in "The Past, Present & Future of Forensics" Course will be moderated by Kevin Evans.

471WB LAW SCHOOL FOR EVERYONE – CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE: Our lecturer for this unit will be Harry Pratter Professor of Law Indiana University. Criminal law and procedure involve the most basic of conflict between the power of the government and the fundamental rights of the individual. One of the most important responsibilities of any government is to protect its citizens from those who would transgress society's rules and norms, and thereby do harm to others. Criminal law is where we identify those roles and norms and where we set the punishments for those transgressions. We will be using Teaching Company material. Bill Scott will lead the discussion.

217WB TALKING SPORTS – A forum to discuss all aspects of sports. Bring your opinions, questions and viewpoints on your favorite sports and teams. From current news on local and national team to looking back at famous moments in sports it will be a lively and fun time. Led by Warren Retzlaff, a former sports official and very knowledgeable about the sports world.

10:30 – 12:00

389WC ADULT BIBLE STUDY – THE BOOK OF REVELATION - This 7-lesson course invites the modern reader to revisit a volatile period in history through apocalyptic, symbolic writing. Enter the struggle between good and evil and experience God's ultimate triumph. We will use a Commentary, Study Guide developed by the Diocese of Little Rock, guided discussion led by Deacon Michael McElwee, and video lectures to gain insight into this often-misunderstood book of the Bible. Cost of two book study set is $16 (checks payable to St. John the Evangelist).

11:00 a.m.

631WC HOW TO WRITE AND PUBLISH YOUR FIRST NOVEL: Jim Nelson wrote his first novel at the age of 60. He now has 10 full length novels published. This course will show you how to utilize the 5 essential novel writing components to create your first book. You will learn how to develop characters, how to structure your scenes to maximize reader involvement and how to turn your initial premise into a 300 + page work.

11:00 a.m.

413WC ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING: Led by Carol Roberts - Do you say “Yes” when you really want to say “No”? Can you say “NO” without feeling guilty? This course will teach appropriate methods of asserting oneself without bullying others or allowing them to bully you. We will focus on effective communication skills in various situations and values clarification exercises will be an important part of the curriculum. Carol Roberts is a licensed mental health counselor and taught this class at BCC for many years.

648WC GREEK TRAGEDY - *Do you enjoy watching movies, TV, or live shows? Do you hope your favorite novel will be made into a movie or a miniseries? If so, you have the Ancient Greeks to thank, as they invented drama. Always tellers of tales, the Greeks used their fabulous mythology to create some of the greatest plays ever written, several of which are still performed today. Tragedy is the greatest form of dramatic art, and in this course, we will see how it evolved from a single performer of epic poetry to a small group performing the works of Sophocles, Aeschylus, and Euripides—writers whose work is rivaled only by Shakespeare. Join Helen Bennett to begin this marvelous adventure.

650WC SHAKESPEARE’S HAMLET - Shakespeare's Hamlet is one of the greatest plays ever written. Come find out why as we share the play (read by professionals), and learn its history, its nuances, and the reasons for its greatness. We will learn why some scholars believe that Shakespeare's plays were really written by a woman. Following our tradition, we will have a potluck dinner of dishes represented in Hamlet and view the drama together. Dr. Edna Crandell will be your moderator.

219WC PREVENTATIVE HEALTH LECTURES – Health educators believe most individuals are not being told about Preventable Health, self-care and ways to stay healthy. There are too many preventable sicknesses, diseases, and ultimately death. Also, entirely too much money spent on unnecessary healthcare and expensive, toxic drugs. Join Michael Edwards, a national recognized author, Board Certified Health Education Specialist and currently working with the United Way of Brevard, for a series of lectures that include: Searching for the Sandman, Our Memory and How to Improve it, 10 Nutrition Secrets at Any Age and several more during the eight week semester.

405WC ALL THINGS FINANCIAL: Dave Riches will be leading this open discussion about all things financial. The class will discuss the pros and cons of every financial decision presented to today’s seniors including: Stock Market Terms, From US Bonds to Lottery, From Penny Stocks to Blue Chips, Debit Cards versus Credit Cards, Savings, Annuities and Reverse Mortgages. Dave is a retired Aerospace Engineer who learned to become financially independent through wise investments. Expect to run over lunch time (12:00 p.m.).

916TC GIANTS OF THE INTERNET INDUSTRY - We will continue our series of lectures about the evolution of the Internet from the days of early computers, TV, books and records, to the media and data-streaming players (ipod, iphone, ipad, kindle, nook, echo, etc.) we know today. We will examine topics regarding a number of our current Internet Giants such as Google, WiFi providers, smart phone manufacturers, App. stores and the philosophy behind Network Neutrality. Dr. Randel Picker, a Distinguished Professor of Law at the University of Chicago, conducts these non-technical lectures. Joel Sturman will facilitate the course material.

12:30 p.m.

465WD ADVANCED MAH JONGG: This particular class is for experienced Mah Jongg players. The National Mah Jongg League sells cards (<https://www.nationalmahjonggleague.org/store.aspx#>) with a description of hands for the players to follow (please bring with you). It is a thinking game, yet so much fun. So...lets play. Class size is limited to 4. Taught by Laurie Liguori.

521WD A COUNTRY MADE BY WAR: THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR, 1861-1865 – TERM FOUR: In this term we shall cover the events from the siege of Fort Sumter to the sieges of Forts Henry and Donelson, considering political and economic policies; “King Cotton;” army organizations, tactics, and weapons, and foreign policies of the USA and CSA. Dick Davis will be the instructor.
