MONDAY Classes

9:00 a.m.

132MA AN ECONOMIC HISTORY OF THE WORLD SINCE 1400: This class is number 6 of 6 Sail sessions for this topic. The topics are now firmly in the 20th century. This session will discuss Germany, EU & the Euro, Free trade, Gorbachev & Yeltsin, Half the World in Poverty, China & India, the Information Economy and Leverage with Globalization. The lecturer is Professor Donald J. Harreld (Brigham Young University). Class discussion will be led by Kevin Evans.

706MA MAGIC FOR GRANDPARENTS: You will learn simple tricks with everyday objects like playing cards: make playing cards magically change places, handkerchiefs: turn a handkerchief into a playful mouse, napkins: tear a napkin to shreds and magically restore it, salt shakers: make a salt shaker pass through a solid, dollar bills, and rubber bands. You will also learn some mentalist tricks and a few commercial effects. Come have fun and learn some tricks with Joe Massimini!

435MA CURRENT EVENTS: Focuses on emerging events or trends that may well have a significant impact on our society. This includes technical, cultural, medical, financial, scientific and broad political trends that we may have heard of, but generally have relatively little information on. Topics that are extremely controversial are avoided where possible, as they generally have both extensive and heated coverage that generate far more heat than light. Topics are typically introduced by about a 30-minute presentation followed by general discussion. Differences of opinion are welcome but personal attacks and labeling of ideas (e.g. socialist, fascist, racist, bleeding-heart) are not unless the opinion giver has identified themselves as such. Jim Thompson, presenter.

10:00 a.m.

423MB PAINT WITH ME (2 HOUR CLASS): Join me, Fred Legg, in a journey to create "Beginner/Intermediate" acrylic paintings. Bring your appetite to learn and develop a skill you will use and enjoy for years to come! You will need the following materials: One 18 x 24" Canvas, Desk Top Portable Easel, Six Brushes (2" Hake, No.10 Bristle brush, No.6 Bristle brush, No. 4 Flat Sable, No. 4 Script Brush, and No. 4 Round Sable), Eleven Acrylic paints - =>2.5 fl oz. tubes (Gesso or Titanium White, Orange, Dark Green, Yellow, Burnt Sienna, Dark Blue, Dark Purple, Blue, Burnt Umber, Thalo - Yellow-Green, Red). Paper plates, Vine Charcoal, towels, spray bottles, water containers will be provided. Class is limited to ten (10) students!! Fred Legg is a professional artist who specializes in Still Life, Murals, and Landscapes using Acrylics and Water Mixed Oils. As a student of Jerry Yarnell (www.yarnellschool.com) he continues to learn new techniques and share them with those that have a passion for the arts. For those that want to look at his paintings, check out the following: www.facebook.com/pages/Fine-Art-By-Fred-Legg, 208MB QIGONG: Qigong is an ancient Chinese healing art that involves a slow and simple series of exercises. It is a form of Tai Chi. Research indicates that these exercises can help reduce stress, relieve pain, promote flexibility, eliminate sleep problems, improve balance & concentration/mental focus and aid in relaxation. Students can sit or stand. Class is led by Bette Buck.

461MB CRIBBAGE PLAY (ONE- OR TWO-HOUR CLASS): Cribbage is one of the best two-hand games - and one of the most enduring card games. Come to learn, come to refresh, come to play. For one hour or two. Class is led by Phyllis Day who is a retired teacher and a longtime member of the American Cribbage Congress.

520MB AMERICA'S FOUNDING FATHERS: Our lecturer for the series will be Allen C. Guelzo PhD in History from the University of Pennsylvania. Who were the Founders? How did their lives shape their ideas, and did those ideas get a hearing in the creation of the new American republic? We begin with George Washington and cover the lives and contributions of both the prominent, the obscure, the brilliant and, on several occasions, the downright fraudulent. We will be using Teaching company material. Bill Scott will lead the discussion.

10:00 a.m.

561MB THE GREAT TRIALS OF WORLD HISTORY AND THE LESSONS THEY TEACH US: In this final segment of the course we will examine 7/8 of the contemporary trials in history, from Nuremberg to O.J. Simpson. These lessons will be diverse as cases are examined for such considerations as the nature of evil and how trials effect future events. We will see and hear acts of eloquence and heroism. Throughout the trial, we are asked, “Was justice done?” and invited to discuss methods by which to improve the judgment. Join in and find out why. This is a Great Course taught by Douglas Linder and facilitated by Vicki Simms.

437MB MAH JONGG: This is a fascinating rummy like game played with tiles rather than cards. The game originated in China, dating back to the time of Confucius. It is played with 3 to 5 players. The National Mah Jongg League sells cards (<https://www.nationalmahjonggleague.org/store.aspx#>) with a description of hands for the players to follow (please bring with you). It is a thinking game, yet so much fun. So..... Let’s learn to play! Class size is limited to 4. Taught by Laurie Liguori.

11:00 a.m.

809MC INTRODUCTION TO THE SPANISH LANGUAGE: Join Isabel Ochoa-Youssef, a retired Spanish teacher in the New York public school system, in this introductory course to the magical world of the Spanish Language. Elementary vocabulary and grammar will help you begin your study of this most important language. Textbook is Spanish Made Simple by Eugene Jackson and Antonio Rubio. Revised by Judith Neimethy.

201MC YOGA: Yoga is an ancient system for calming the mind, stretching and strengthening the body and connecting to one’s inner being. In each class, there is focus on breathing, learning and practicing the poses, and a short meditation at the end. Your yoga instructor will be Elana Meier. Please bring a yoga mat.

649MC BEGINNERS COURSE IN GENEALOGY: Classes will be geared toward the beginning genealogist. Topics will include the following: introduction, genealogy software, Internet research, vital record census before and after 1850, immigration, migration, and personal history. Put on by the members of the Genealogical Society of South Brevard and moderated by Elsie Dietzmann.

648MC CLASSICAL MYTHOLOGY, PART 3: From Oedipus to Ovid and beyond, we will examine some of the enchanting and familiar myths of Ancient Greece and Rome. As we try to determine which myths were part of ancient religion and which were just entertainments, we see the enormous effect this mythology had on English literature, especially through Shakespeare. Included will be many of the myths not touched on earlier, especially the love stories. The adventures will not end, as we introduce one of the greatest contributions of the Greeks: Theater. Most of the Greek tragedies involved mythology, and we will examine these cultural gems in the next courses. Don’t miss the excitement! Join Helen Bennett for this delightful course

916MC GIANTS OF THE INTERNET INDUSTRY: This will be a series of lectures about the evolution of the Internet from the days of early computers, TV, books and records, to the media and data-streaming players (iPod, iPhone, iPad, Kindle, Nook, Echo, etc.) we know today. It is mostly a non-technical history describing the struggle of the internet services and entertainment industries to preserve their intellectual business assets through the onslaught of today’s on-going technology revolution. Lectures are conducted by Dr. Randel Picker, a Distinguished Professor of Law at the University of Chicago. You will learn from a “non-technical person” to view today’s technology revolution from the point of view of the FCC, the FTC, and the Department of Justice. Lectures will be facilitated by Joel Sturman.

818TC ADVANCED SPANISH: Puntos de Partida (Points of Departure). In this course students will participate in discussions of topics of interest, everyday life conversations students may encounter in the daily life that they may encounter in a Spanish-country. The class will help improve the students’ listening and speaking skills, and help them communicate better with Spanish-speaking people. This class will be conducted entirely in Spanish and will be limited to TEN (10) students. The class will be conducted by Monsie Woehler who has a Master’s degree in Spanish, has many years of teaching experience and has taught at all levels of Spanish.

437MC MAH JONGG: This is a fascinating rummy like game played with tiles rather than cards. See description at 10:00 a.m. Class size is limited to 4, expect to run over past lunch time (12:00 p.m.)! Taught by Laurie Liguori

12:30 p.m.

114MD YOUR BEST BRAIN: This course will examine current knowledge about how the brain functions and changes throughout life, and how these changes may be optimized, especially in seniors. We will also learn about how the brain resists any changes. We will use videos from “The Great Courses” for this study in addition to group discussions in class. The instructor is professor John J. Medina, who has an extensive background in brain function. The class will be led by Dr. Roger Johnson, retired professor.

202MD CHAIR YOGA: This gentle movement class is perfect for those uncomfortable working on the floor. We sit in a chair or use it for support to modify the poses enhancing flexibility. Release tension and lubricate the joints as you improve balance and increase strength and stamina. Do only what fits you. All are welcome. Chairs will be provided. Elana Meier will be the instructor.

502MD PROBLEMS IN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY: This class will examine and discuss problems in American foreign policy. At the close of discussion each week, the moderator will distribute an issue paper to be discussed in the next class. In the first week of this class we will discuss foreign policy events that have taken place since the last term. Discussions will be moderated by Dick Davis.

807MD CONVERSATIONAL SPANISH LANGUAGE: Isabel Ochoa-Youssef will present conversation at the intermediate level, centered upon everyday situations; shopping, visiting the doctor, travel, hotels and restaurants, etc. Senora Isabel is a native speaker. A great chance to sharpen your ear and polish your accent! Textbook is Spanish Made Simple by Eugene Jackson and Antonio Rubio. . Revised by Judith Neimethy.

TUESDAY Classes

9:00 a.m.

417TA BEGINNING BRIDGE: This class is designed for those who are just beginning to learn the game along with those who feel they need a refresher in the basics. Warren Retzlaff will be working with you to develop your skills so that by the fifth week you should be able to play on your own.

204TA ZUMBA GOLD ® : It’s 45-50 minutes of ‘ExerciZe in DisguiZe’ with Zumba Gold® with Ro! Gold is Bold, not Old!!!Hate to exercise? Then you’ll love this dance fitness class. Ro creates easy to follow dance moves using a variety of your favorite music from all the decades, designed to strengthen and tone your entire body, help improve your balance, and work the brain. Each class is a PARTY and you can join anytime! All ages are welcome! Ro is HIGH energy, but the moves are LOW impact keeping it easy on the knees and joints! (No Bouncing or Jumping! Unless, of course, YOU want too!).

 580TA HOW WINSTON CHURCHILL CHANGED THE WORLD: The continuation of this course follows Winston Churchill’s career from the end of the First World War to the dawn of the Second. Rejoining the Conservative party, he would serve as a “back-bencher” for most of the next decade. Now out of the Cabinet, Churchill turned to a role at which he was most successful - that of narrative historian. He kept his name alive through books, essays, and public speaking; the newspapers and magazines of the day featured his byline, never quite sure what he would say, but sure it would spark controversy. He painted, practiced bricklaying, and became a gardener. The rising tide of totalitarianism would spark his most critical impact on History - standing almost alone against the rise of dictators. This is a Great Course program taught by Professor Michael Sheldon and facilitated by Craig Curran

211TB POSTURCIZE: Led by Jan Harazda, RN (RN936802), LMT (MA#24421)"The gym class we should have had!" Gentle conditioning exercises for warming and lubricating the joints, increasing resilience, as well as preventing and recovering from pain. Gain knowledge and get support for specific musculoskeletal issues. Janet has been teaching Posturcize to groups and individuals for 30 years.

579TB UTOPIA AND TERROR IN THE 20th CENTURY: This class is in number 2 of 3 Sail sessions for this topic. This course examines why the 20th century was so violent. The course examines the ideologies that promised utopia and total solutions to social problems (Fascism, Nazism, Communism and others). The course discusses how the 4 elements of masses, machines, mobsters and master plans come together. It discusses how utopia and terror are similar and also different. The lecturer is Professor Vejas Gabriel Liulevicius (University of Tennessee). Class discussion will be led by Kevin Evans

383TB HISTORICAL AND JEWISH CONTEXT OF THE SYNOPTIC GOSPELS – CONTINUED: For most of the history of Christianity the Gospels have been read and studied for their religious message and especially for their theological import. For the last 200 years, greater attention has been paid to re-searching these scriptures with the goal of better understanding them in their original context. We will explore several major stories and themes in the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) in light of their ancient historical and Jewish context. Class taught by Rabbi Richard Margolis (NOTE: This class will not be held on Tuesday April 19th)

416TB INTERMEDIATE BRIDGE (2 HOUR CLASS): This is your opportunity to improve your game by learning to add some of the bridge conventions commonly used such as Stayman, Jacoby transfers, takeout and negative doubles, features, weak 2 bids and others as well as general bidding tactics. Dr. Art Pappas and Dave Riches will guide this class. The first hour is instructional and the second hour is supervised play. Players from BEGINNING BRIDGE are welcome to join in this class.

216TB SELF-DEFENSE CONCEPTS, APPLICATIONS AND SKILLES: This is 2-hour course that will provide participants with the necessary practical skills to understand and avoid most attack situations as well as develop the mental and physical skills required to successfully deal with confrontation. This first hour focuses on mental conditioning. Students may choose to take the first hour, the second hour or both hours. However, participation in the second hour requires completion of the first hour as a prerequisite. Instructor: Ron Kazoroski, former police chief and 5th degree black belt in Kozuma-kai Japanese Karate-do.

471TB LAW SCHOOL FOR EVERYONE – CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE: Our lecturer for this unit will be Harry Pratter Professor of Law Indiana University. Criminal law and procedure involves the most basic of conflict between the power of the government and the fundamental rights of the individual. One of the most important responsibilities of any government is to protect its citizens from those who would transgress society's rules and norms, and thereby do harm to others. Criminal law is where we identify those roles and norms and where we set the punishments for those transgressions. We will be using Teaching Company material. Bill Scott will lead the discussion.

217TB TALKING SPORTS – A forum to discuss all aspects of sports. Bring your opinions, questions and viewpoints on your favorite sports and teams. From current news on local and national team to looking back at famous moments in sports it will be a lively and fun time. Led by Warren Retzlaff, a former sports official

11:00 a.m.

631TC HOW TO WRITE AND PUBLISH YOUR FIRST NOVEL: Jim Nelson wrote his first novel at the age of 60. He now has 9 full length novels published. This course will show you how to utilize the 5 essential novel writing components to create your first book. You will learn how to develop characters, how to structure your scenes to maximize reader involvement and how to turn your initial premise into a 300 + page work.

11:00 a.m.

437TC MAH JONGG: This is a fascinating rummy like game played with tiles rather than cards. The game originated in China, dating back to the time of Confucius. It is played with 3 to 5 players. The National Mah Jongg League sells cards (<https://www.nationalmahjonggleague.org/store.aspx#>) with a description of hands for the players to follow (please bring with you). Instructor- Ron Kazoroski, 5th Dan, Kozuma-Kai Japanese Karate-Do and Former Police Chief

582TC HISTORY OF THE INDIAN SUBCONTINENT: The Indian subcontinent (India, Pakistan & Bangladesh) is home to some of the world's oldest civilizations. Today the region has 20 percent of the world's population and is a thriving center for global business, making this region one of most significant economic powerhouses in the world. Over the past 5,000 years, the subcontinent has been home to a rich tapestry of peoples and cultures. Perhaps the most important facet of this history is how diverse the region truly is. Roughly the size of continental Europe, it contains a myriad of ethnic groups, socioeconomic classes, religions, and cultural mores. Narrated by Professor Michael H. Fisher, Ph.D. Oberlin College, and facilitated by Fahim Ahmed, an American who was born in colonial India

727TC A BEGINNERS ANALYSIS OF CLASSICAL MUSIC: Thomas Forrest Kelly, professor of Music at Harvard University together with the Harvard Radcliff Symphony Orchestra, will continue with us in his analysis of classical music through an entertaining examination of Berloiz's Symphonie Fantastique. We will then go on to a study of Stravinsky's Rite of Spring. Classes will be facilitated by Joel Sturman. Attendance of prior semester's classes is not necessary and no prior expertise in Music is required other than its appreciation.

405TC ALL THINGS FINANCIAL: Dave Riches will be leading this open discussion about all things financial. The class will discuss the pros and cons of every financial decision presented to today's seniors including: Stock Market Terms, From US Bonds to Lottery, From Penny Stocks to Blue Chips, Debit Cards versus Credit Cards, Savings, Annuities and Reverse Mortgages. Dave is a retired Aerospace Engineer who learned to become financially independent through wise investments. Expect to run over lunch time (12:00 p.m.).

450TC EMBROIDERY FOR BEGINNERS: Hand Embroidery is a relaxing and intriguing hobby that can bring much satisfaction as well as the companionship of group learning. Members of the Indian River Chapter of the Embroiderers' Guild of America (IRC/EGA), a worldwide organization, will teach seven basic stitches on a small sample book mark. Complete kits will be provided, and magnification will be available. Just bring your enthusiasm.

12:30 p.m.

437TD MAH JONGG: This is a fascinating rummy like game played with tiles rather than cards. The game originated in China, dating back to the time of Confucius. It is played with 3 to 5 players.
